One day, a client sent us the following request – “We want a comfortable sofa for our bistro, with an upholstery that will look impeccable for many years.

We also want it to be so versatile that if we wanted to design it in the shape of a serpent, it would be possible. Finally, we want the shapes to be so subtle that we can use it in many spaces without it ever looking the same.”

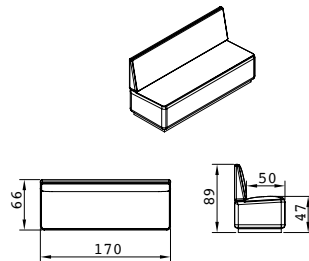

We did all that, and even better. Thus the BISTRO was born.
